

PYTHONS WIN STREAK CURTAILED

Despite thrilling fans with eight late inning runs, the Pentecost Pythons had their one game winning streak cut short by league opponent Down and Dirty with a 13 – 8 loss Sunday evening.

Python batters were led by Ty Chiaravolloti, Mason Witkofski, Tom Hasko, Tim Barthel and Tim Hasko. Chiaravolotti singled three times and drew a base on balls, while Witkofski drove in a pair of runs with a trio of singles. Tom Hasko drove in a run with a pair of singles and a walk, and the combination of Tim Barthel and Tim Hasko added four more singles and a pair of runs batted in, distributed evenly between the duo. The younger Hasko’s pair of singles continued his hot streak at the plate, leading brother and manager Tom Hasko to consider keeping Tim in the Python line up as a extra hitter, even in games where Tim’s defensive prowess was not needed in the field. Paul Maller, Dan Hasko and Dave Van Ruden each contributed a single and were each the beneficiary of a free pass to first base, with Van Ruden driving in a run. Kyle Jacob singled and Luke Jacob drove in a pair of runs with fielder’s choices to round out Python batting.

The Pythons will look to start a new winning streak on Sunday, June 9th at 4 PM at Lincoln Park.

Second baseman Ty Chiaravolloti singled three times and drew a walk.

Left fielder Tom Hasko drove in one run with a pair of singles and a walk.

Shortstop Mason Witkofski singled three times to drive in a pair of runs.
