

THE VOICE
Of Pentecost Lutheran Church

As forgiven children of God, we, the Pentecost Family of Faith, are committed to show everyone Life in Christ.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

“²⁸ And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. ²⁹ For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. ³⁰ And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified.

“George, if you should die today, will you go to heaven?” “Yes,” replied George.

“You can’t be absolutely sure, can you?” asked his friend.

“I’m sure, and I’ll tell you why I’m so very sure!”

“God invited me to be his child. He did this through the good news of the Gospel, which tells me of my salvation in Jesus. He has seen to it that I have not only heard but have also received his invitation. In this way faith that trusts in Jesus for salvation was created in me. Because of this faith, God is no longer angry with me over sin. My God-given faith takes the righteousness of Christ and makes me holy and just in God’s eyes. That’s how I know I was made his child.

As his child I’m sure that everything that happens to me will serve for my good and lead me yet closer to the Lord. You see, God will let no harm come to any of his children. In fact, it has to be this way. Before time began, God knew me and decided that I was to become his child. Therefore he provided a way for my salvation in Jesus. He saw to it that I was invited and called to be his child through his holy Word. He moved my heart to believe the invitation.

And he is actually keeping me in faith right now through his Word. That’s why I have faith that trusts in Jesus’ blood and righteousness. That’s why I am his child. That’s why I have a sacred promise from him.

Our gracious Lord, who made me his child through faith in Jesus, has made me a sacred promise. He has promised that he will glorify me, that is, make and keep me perfect for heaven. So it’s just a matter of time until he will also give me the perfect reason for his inviting and calling me. In heaven his promise will be kept.”

“Yes, dear friend, I’m sure I will go to heaven when I die. God has taken the whole matter out of my hands and has given me the gift of eternal life. Oh, how he loves me! You’re his child by faith in Jesus. You too can be sure,” encouraged George, as he was taken to the operating room where God kept his sacred promise to him.

Prayer:

O Lord, truly you have loved us. By calling us to faith through your Holy Spirit, you have called us your sons and daughters. Help us when we struggle with doubts and frustration, to know that you still love us and walk with us. Amen.

We are looking for help cutting the church and parish house lawns again this summer. There is a sign-up sheet on the table in the narthex. This is a huge money saver for the church, so it would be great to get a lot of volunteers to help with this task. If you need help learning how to use the equipment just contact one of the trustees for their assistance.

Big Brunch for Tiny Houses

The Sunday School would like to invite you to come on Sunday, May 6th for a brunch following church, around 10:30am until noon. Come and enjoy food, fellowship, and fun as we continue to raise funds to help our veterans.

Needs Volunteers!!!!

Anyone age 16 and older can be an Aurora Health Care volunteer. We are looking for individuals to share their talents and time. As a volunteer, you will meet new people, build friendships, gain personal rewards and enjoy flexible hours.

The amount of time you volunteer is up to you. Many people volunteer once or twice a week for four hours a day – some more and others less. The volunteer staff gladly accommodates different schedules for those going on vacation or those taking a season off.

To become an Aurora volunteer, you will be asked to complete an application and provide a personal reference, submit to a criminal background check, attend orientation and service training, and visit with a nurse who will give you a required TB test and flu shot, if applicable.

Benefits of becoming an Aurora volunteer? Make a difference, give back to the community, meet new people, be challenged, share your talents!

Volunteer opportunities consist of hospital ambassador services, clinic ambassador services, registration desk, surgery desk, floor assistant-nursing and emergency departments, pet therapy, café assistant, min-medic children’s program, community programs, patient healing cart, cookie baker, cancer center ambassador services, obstetric ambassador services, Racine Clinic ambassador services.

We believe every patient deserves the best care. We believe in responsibly managing resources. We believe in building a healthy workplace through accountability, teamwork, and respect. We believe that the patient is at the center of everything we do.

Your work as a volunteer is invaluable to helping us live this philosophy. Volunteers are instrumental in helping our patients heal, creating a welcoming and friendly environment. Your time and energy can truly make a difference in the lives of our patients! Whatever your passion is, share it. We would love to talk to you about your talents and we will find a way to help you share with our patients and caregiver at Aurora.

PROJECTS AT PENTECOST

– May 5th starting at 9am – several activities will be happening to give you an opportunity to share your time and talents with our Pentecost family. A Banner Bee will be happening. Kathy has volunteered to lead in the cleaning and organizing of the kitchen. Katy will teach crocheting to those who would like to learn, and possibly be moved to help with the prayer shawl ministry. John will direct yard work. Other projects that others could lead might include making Oplakty, washing windows, washing the pews, getting flower beds ready for planting, or whatever needs doing but just doesn't get done. We need a babysitter for those small children whose parents may want to help. If you feel moved to help in one of these ways please let me know. If you want to help but not lead, just show up on Saturday and choose where you would like to help. If you know what activity you would like to help with you may contact them in advance. We will enjoy a potluck lunch beginning at 12:30. Please bring a dish to pass. Come for an hour, come for hours, come just to eat, or come to just watch. Contact Sharon at 497-4022 or 800-3002.

Thanks, Mom!

At his graduation, a young man tasked with giving a speech began reading from some notes. "I want to talk about my mother and the wonderful influence she had on my life," he said. "She's a shining example of parenthood, and I love her more than words can ever do justice."

The graduate then paused, appeared to struggle a moment and looked up at the audience with a mischievous smile. "It's really hard to read my mom's handwriting," he said.

Pentecost, the church's birthday

Pentecost was originally a Jewish harvest festival when the first fruits of crops were given as offerings to God. On the first Pentecost after Jesus' resurrection, the Holy Spirit came upon Jesus' followers. They were filled with power and love, thus empowering them to witness to God's actions in Christ to all who were nearby. Some 3,000 people responded to their claims that Christ was Lord and Savior of mankind.

The outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon Jesus' first followers on the day of Pentecost is often called the Church's birthday. You can read the entire story in Acts 2.

In Christian churches, Pentecost was once as important as Christmas and Easter. Today, congregations still observe it in special ways, using the color red to symbolize the Holy Spirit's power.

This year we celebrate Pentecost on May 20. A custom in our church has been to wear red on Pentecost Sunday. Our church, Pentecost Lutheran, had its beginnings on Pentecost Sunday in 1908. That's how we got our name, although it was in Slovak at that time and translated to "Descending of the Holy Spirit"

Thanks to our "Drama Team" for presenting The Gift on Concordia Sunday. They all had an excuse for not accepting the gift or one thing needful. Our narrator, Pastor Jacob explained that the scriptures say: "Seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well Matthew 6:33

What a Friend We Have in Jesus

Joseph M. Scriven

From Canadian Songwriters Hall of Fame ~ "Joseph M. Scriven

originally wrote What a Friend We Have in Jesus to comfort his ailing mother who was living in Ireland. He published the poem a number of years later at a friend's insistence. The name of the collection of poems was simply entitled Hymns and Other Verses. Scriven and Converse did not intend for their respective lyrics and melody to be joined together. In fact, during World War I, Converse's score was actually paired with the words, "When This Bloody War is Over." It was a man named Ira D. Sankey that popularized the hymn when he published it in the well-known collection, Sankey's Gospel Hymns Number One in 1875."

Scriven suffered two tragedies in his life. He saw his fiancé drown the night before their wedding. A second fiancé died from pneumonia shortly before their wedding. When his mother became ill, he could not afford to go back to Ireland to help care for her, so he wrote the story of his life in "What a Friend we have in Jesus." Later, he said "The Lord and I together wrote the song."
